Dear Sir/Madam:

Please have the offender sign his waiver. The form must be completed correctly by the offender in order for us to process the request. Check Yes or No. Then the offender must sign, date and provide an address of the facility and either admit or not admit to the allegations. The witness must sign and date the form as well as providing an address and phone number. If the offender waived his right to a hearing he must admit to the allegations above in order for the sentences to run concurrent. Once form is completed return it via fax.

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am in receipt of your HS-129.3 form in which you requested a Revocation Hearing for mitigation purposes after your return to Texas prison. This letter will remain a permanent part of your file.

We cannot conduct a hearing because you are in custody out of state. Unfortunately, we do not have a method for providing a hearing-in-absentia. Therefore, when you are extradited back to Texas a hearing will be provided at that time by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice - Institutional Division.

Any questions concerning time calculation should be referred to: Chairman, State Classifications, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division, P.O. Box 99, Huntsville, Texas 77340.

Sincerely,

PAROLE DIVISION
